

The image below is on page 136 of the Downers Grove High School yearbook in 1930. It is within the 'Jokes' section of the book that can be found at the Downers Grove Public Library.

Some internet sources describe the term '3 letter man' as a derogatory expression for a gay man that is spelled with 3 letters. What was the motivation for including this image? Was the image included as a joke making fun of the Klan but at the expense of LGBTQ people? Is there a meaning behind the 4 fingers being held up?
